Notes

- Digital entries should be titled with the sequence number followed by the title, and grouped into individual folders for each category. All of the folders should then be grouped into a single folder under your name as you want it displayed. For example, a folder named John Smith could contain up to 7 folders, each folder could contain up to 3 images.
- If e-mailing the completed folder, (compsec.internal.adaps@gmail.com) then the folder must be zipped.
